

Hamish Seegers MAR, MAML, Mdiv Chaplaincy works as a professional Chaplain with BJC Home Health and Hospice as well as the Washington University Division of Palliative Medicine at Barnes-Jewish Hospital. Hamish also serves as a Hospice educator in the Missouri Correctional Facilities teaching offenders how to provide hospice care to other offenders in need. He received his B.A. in Religion from Olivet Nazarene University as well as a Masters in Religion, a Master's in Missional Leadership from Northwest Nazarene University, a Masters of Divinity in Chaplaincy from Olivet Nazarene University, Clinical Pastoral Education from Rush University, and a Palliative Care Specialty Certificate from California State University. Hamish has vast experience, leadership, and wisdom in working with people and team development. Hamish works alongside others supporting those in need throughout his career as a chaplain and bereavement specialist. Hamish is an Ordained Elder with the Church of the Nazarene. He resides in St. Charles with his wife and two children.